Director General Department of International Trade Promotion

Currently, the global economy has changed dramatically causing Thailand's international trade economy to face increasing challenges in every dimension China-United States trade tension, trade and Investment regulations, advancement in information technology, financial fluctuation, unrest situation in various regions to name a few. Prevailing over new challenges seeking for trade opportunities and expanding business into new markets are absolutely essential in international trading.

Department of International Trade Promotion (DITP), Ministry of Commerce plays a crucial role as a driving force of the Ministry of Commerce's strategic plans. Our missions are to develop the potential of Thai entrepreneurs in international trading, expand marketing channels for Thai products and services, enhance the added value of Thai products and services and continuously improve service quality excellence by focusing on proactive operations. We are determined to collaborate closely with the private agencies to boost the export sector in order to drive Thailand's economy forward.

The objective of establishing Thai National Shippers' Council (TNSC) is to be a private nonprofit organization representing Thai exporters in negotiating and protecting the interests of its members and Thai exporters including creating opportunities and capabilities of Thai entrepreneurs. Throughout the years, TNSC's board members have illustrated the commitment to drive this organization to achieve its objectives. Thai National Shippers' Council has worked in close cooperation with the Department of International Trade Promotion to promote and develop Thailand's export including participation in various activities such as SMEs Pro-active program, Thailand International Logistics fair (TILOG & Logistix), Seminars and Trade Fair (Top Thai Brands) in order to cultivate entrepreneurs to be able to compete in the global arena.

On behalf of Department of International Trade Promotion, it gives me great pleasure to congratulate TNSC on the 25th anniversary and issuing TNSC Directory 2019-2020. I would also like to take this opportunity to send our best wishes to TNSC and its members every success in your endeavors.
